

Cooking Award 2023: HOBART receives two silver medals

Two Cooking Awards 2023 go to Offenburg. HOBART receives a silver medal for its new Precipan multifunctional braising pan and for its external drying solution for hood-type dishwashers.

Offenburg, 28 April 2023 – The world market leader in commercial warewashing can claim two new trophies for its innovative products. Not only a solution from the core segment of warewashing technology, but also from the cooking area, received the Cooking Award 2023.

Precipan – one device meets all needs

The Precipan multifunction braising pan received the silver medal in the product group cooking, stove and grill technology. With its extra thick high-performance pan base, the Precipan cooks, fries and roasts even large quantities of food with absolute precision. The all-rounder replaces various kitchen appliances and supports the kitchen staff in the catering business.

External drying solution for hood-type dishwashers – reusables under control

The HOBART hood-type dishwasher with external drying is particularly interesting for many users who have to wash and dry reusable plastic containers and dry them perfectly. The external drying solution is available both for new machines and as a retrofit solution for existing devices. HOBART's technology won the silver medal in the warewashing technology category.

About the Cooking Award

The readers' choice "Cooking Award" is presented annually by the trade magazine COOKING + CATERING INSIDE and honors the most popular product launches by chefs in the catering business. Cooking and catering experts vote in a nationwide survey for their most popular new convenience and kitchen technology product launches.
